Limerick Dominate 2020 Hurling All Stars
Limerick’s status as the current benchmark in hurling excellence has been underlined with their domination of the final 15 in the PWC All Stars for Hurling 2020.
The announcement was made as part of a special programme to honour both the 2020 hurling and football all-stars shown on RTE on Saturday night after their clean sweep of all major trophies in 2020. The all-star champions were rewarded with nine players Micky Quaid (Effin), Seán Finn (Bruff), Dan and Tom Morrissey (Ahane), Diarmuid Byrnes, Cian Lynch, aaron Cullane (Patrickswell), Kyle Hayes (Kildimo/Pallaskenry) and Gearóid Hegarty (St. Patrick’s) on the star-studded team, a record equalling total and eclipses the five awards the Shannonsiders claimed in 1973 and six awards in 2018 when they won the McCarthy Cup. Nine is the highest number of all-stars won by any team. It not only sees Limerick match their football counterparts Dublin in 2020 but puts them in an exclusive group with the great Kilkenny hurling teams of 1983, 2000 and
2008 and iconic Dublin and Kerry football teams of 1977 and 1981 as the only other teams to claim nine awards.
